

Michael Leader and Col parish registers in county Cork Ireland

Michael Edward Basil LEADER

- 1915 – 1998
- genealogist with a special interest in county Cork
- Irish Genealogical Research Society
- life's work get copies of all extant Church of Ireland and non-conformist parish records for the parishes of county Cork

His collection and approach

- He did not create indexes
- He believed that you got a better feeling for the family relationships that might have existed by scanning through the registers than if you simply resorted to an index
- Collaboration with Rosmary ffolliot
- see 20 page list of registers

Where is his collection now?

- Irish Genealogical Research Society London
- Grove-White collection available through the Mormons
